Arkansas Lady Cannot Say Enough in Praise of Cardui, Which Did Her a World of Good

Mena, Ark.—"I find Cardui to be all you represent," writes Mrs. H. B. York, of this city. "I suffered for nearly two years before I tried your remedy. I have been so relieved since taking Cardui I cannot say enough in its praise. It has done me a world of good, and I recommend Cardui to all women."

Similar letters come to us every day from all over the country, telling the same story of benefit obtained from Cardui, the woman's tonic.

This great remedy is over 50 years old, and is more in demand to-day than ever. Cardui has stood the test of time. It is the standard tonic medicine for women of every age.

The first thought in female ailments. Would you like to be well and strong again! Then take Cardui. It can't possibly harm you, and its record indicates that it ought to help you.

Have you poor health? Cardui has assisted thousands of women to glowing good health.

NEWS OF V. M. I.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lexington, Va., September 25.—The barracks of the Virginia Military institute are now filled to their utmost capacity, 360 cadets having reported for duty. This number so early in the session exceeds the total matriculation for last year.

Some vacancies have occurred which have been quickly filled by other men. It looks now as if a waiting list will have to be established, from which list, in the order of their names, men will be taken to supply vacancies as they occur.
